Course Title: Lean Team Design, Accounting, and Scheduling

Course Description: This class provides an overview:
- of the role TEAMs, measurements and design have in contributing to the success in LEAN implementations
- the impact of LEAN on accounting processes
- Teams will be assigned a short relevant LEAN project for this course; a brief presentation and discussion will take place during the last session.

Course Prerequisite(s): None, preferred they have class #1, 2 & 3 of this series;

Course Objectives:
- To provide a thorough understanding of Lean and related Accounting practices & processes;
- To provide the student with the information and tools to be a team member of successful LEAN efforts in their company.
- To provide to student with the opportunity to use their new info / tools in a small LEAN project and present it to the class.

Textbook(s): None required, a list of recommending readings will be provided at the first session.