Course Title: UNIX System Administration Part II

Course Description:
A continuing study of Unix system administration.

Course Prerequisite(s):
Unix System Administration, Part I

Course Objectives: Learn network configuration and troubleshooting, network services, DNS and DHCP.

Textbook(s):
Essential System Administration, 3rd Edition
O'Reilly
ISBN: 0-596-00343-9

Certification Notes:

Next Class Possibilities:
Instructor Notes:

Lesson Plan – by week or session
Session 1: Backup and Restore
Session 2: Serial Lines and Devices
Session 3: Printers and the Spooling Subsystem
Session 4: Automating Administrative Tasks
Session 5: Managing System Resources
Session 6: Configuring and Building Kernels
Session 7: Accounting
Session 8: The Profession of System Administration
Session 9: Administrative Shell Programming
Session 10: Instructor Discretion