Course Title: How to Make Your Living as a Writer

Date/Time/Sessions: Five three-hour sessions

Instructor: Don Simonds
Phone: 214.282.6517
e-Mail: dsimonds@collin.edu

Course Description:
Every writer wants to be published and to make money. This course is designed for those who want to make their living as a writer. Participants will learn how to make their writing commercial and marketable. Come discover your creative vision, select the best, most profitable channel for your career, and create a master plan to make it happen.

Course Prerequisite(s):
None

Course Objectives:
By the end of this course participants will have; developed career mission and vision statements, converted writing blocks into steppingstones, learned a five-step writing process, made career choices from seventeen writing markets, and shaped a strategic marketing plan

Textbook(s):
No text is required. A suggested reading list will be provided.

Next Class Possibilities:

Lesson Plans:
Session 1: What’s your dream?
Session 2: How to write with freedom and confidence
Session 3: Follow a logical process from Generating ideas to Polishing your work
Session 4: Set up your writing business, multiply your profits, and get published
Session 5: Set goals for the next twelve months and develop weekly action plans