Course Title: Classical Drawing

Course Description:
Emphasis will be on the classical method of education – from sketching to drawing elements of Michelangelo’s David’s face. Focus will be on composition, air and linear perspective, laws of light and shadow and that lines make up living, breathing beings.

Suggested Course Prerequisite(s):

Materials Needed: See supply list

Course Objectives:
1. Comprehend composition, air and linear perspective
2. Demonstrate the concept of light and shadow and their relationship to the human body
3. Apply the concept that lines make up living, breathing beings

Certification Notes: Not a certificate course

Next course recommendation:

Instructor Notes:

Textbook(s):

Lesson Plan – by week or session
Session 1: Establish the knowledge of fast drawing; Sketches of the human figure using charcoal and extra black pencils; Portraits using sanquine and sepia
Session 2: Theoretical: composition and laws of perspective; Linear drawing still life with drapery
Session 3: Theoretical: light and shadows, shading; Creating 3D volume; Continuation and completion of still life drawing
Session 4: Drawing elements from Michelangelo’s David’s face
Session 5: Continuing working with Michelangelo drawing
Session 6: Theoretical: laws, proportions; Drawing of the human figure

Course Sessions: listed are a guideline to indicate all topics that will be covered during your course. Do not plan your personal calendar based on these sessions. Your instructor will give you a calendar for your class that will indicate specific topics, assignments, and days.

Method of Evaluation: Unless otherwise stated, course completion is evaluated on the basis of attendance. Students must be in attendance 90% of the class time in order to be considered a successful completer of the course.

Students must be in attendance 90% of each course in a certificate series for successful completion and to earn a certificate as specified.

Students must complete all courses (core and no. of elective courses needed) to complete a certificate series within two years from start date of the first course taken.
Americans with Disabilities Act: Collin College will adhere to all applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations as required to afford equal opportunity. It is the student’s responsibility to contact the ACCESS office, SCC-G200 or 972.881.5898 (V/TTD: 972.881.5950) to arrange for appropriate accommodations. See the current Collin Student Handbook for additional information.
http://www.collin.edu/studentresources/personal/studenthandbook.aspx