Course Title: Fundamentals of Screenwriting

Course web page: http://www.collin.edu/ce/courses/screenwriting_fundamentals.html

Course Description:
This course focuses on the unique characteristics of screenwriting. From your original concept, you will learn to weave a story using dramatic structure, vivid characters, and cinematic conventions. This course will cover the basic structure of a script for film or TV. You will also be given guidance in rewriting and polishing your unique script. Furthermore, time will be spent on networking, contests, writer’s groups, agents, etc., with the ultimate goal of selling your “Spec Script” to a producer or studio.

Suggested Course Prerequisite(s): None

Materials Needed:

Course Objectives:
By the end of this course participants will have learned the fundamental concepts and techniques of dramatic writing including, but not limited to, the basic structure of a script, why the first 10 pages are most important, how to craft a marketable script, and develop believable characters. Participants will also receive guidance for approaching a rewrite; such as, how to analyze a scene, fix composition, develop antagonism, improve cast design, ensure a character arc, and polish and tighten dialogue. Participants will be encouraged to complete the first draft or at a minimum Act I of a feature length film or TV pilot script.

Certification Notes: Not a certificate course
